Discover this architecturally designed, one-of-a-kind, walkout hillside bungalow that perfectly frames stunning views of the river valley. Nestled among mature trees, this home offers privacy, character, and a peaceful connection to nature. The main floor features striking open-beamed, sloped ceilings and a beautiful double masonry fireplace, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The open-concept layout flows into an oak kitchen with a built-in oven — designed to capture both function and charm. Just off the main living area, you'll find a gorgeous sunroom set among the trees — the perfect space to unwind, entertain, or simply enjoy the view in every season. With 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, this home also features a developed walkout basement offering potential for an additional bedroom or flexible living space. Outside, a two-tiered backyard and partially covered patio make the most of the natural setting. Additional highlights include a single attached garage and extra parking on the front pad. This truly unique property combines architectural interest, incredible views, and a serene setting — a rare find in Medicine Hat's sought-after southwest hills.
