This home offers timeless character, a prime location, and exceptional long-term investment potential. Situated in the heart of Crescent Heights with a sun-soaked south-facing backyard and just steps from Crescent Heights Hill, this property blends inner-city living with a touch of vintage charm. The main level features two comfortable bedrooms and an updated 4-piece bathroom, complete with a relaxing steam shower. The bright kitchen and living spaces make the home feel warm and inviting, while the lower level adds flexibility with an additional bedroom and second 4-piece bathroom, ideal for guests or future development opportunities. Whether you’re looking to hold as a rental, move in, or build in the future, this home presents endless possibilities. Currently occupied by exceptional long-term tenants who would love to stay, it’s a solid, low-maintenance investment in one of Calgary’s most desirable neighbourhoods.
