Step back in time and bring this Mid-Century Modern gem back to life! Located in one of Lloydminster's most sought after mid-century neighborhoods, this home is a great find for someone looking to restore a classic home into their own! Inside, you will find the classics - wood cathedral ceiling, mid-century vanity and cabinets, period light fixtures, and character throughout the interior doors and trim. There are three bedrooms on the main floor, and a finished basement, complete with a retro bar. Outside, the fenced yard provides ample trees, a garden area and an oversized single garage. All appliances in the home will remain. If you have been looking for a home, or project that combines location, architecture and potential, this is it.
